Accidental Activations: We are not responsible for any accidental activations of the licence keys provided. Ensure careful handling during the activation process.

Noncancellation Errors: No refunds will be issued for human errors leading to non cancelled subscriptions. It is the user's responsibility to cancel memberships before the renewal date.

Payment Failures: Service interruptions due to failed payments are not eligible for refunds. Ensure your payment information is current and accurate.

Discord Account Issues: No refunds will be given for issues related to Discord accounts, including termination, ban, revocation, loss, or leaving the server.

Trial Memberships: Automatic charges will apply after a free trial period unless cancelled before the renewal date. No refunds for trial memberships not cancelled before renewal.

Service Discontinuation: Pro Rata refunds will only be issued if Lunar FBA closes on its own terms. No refunds if the service closes involuntarily.
